Tips on this method: Don’t fill out the left side until AFTER the class. Filling out the left column during the lecture will distract you, which is VERY bad. Filling out the left column when you are reviewing your notes within 24 hours of taking the notes is VERY good. You can then use your textbook or other resources to assess what are the main ideas, which isn’t always clear in class.